WORKING CLASS COST OF LIVING INDEX NUMBERS FOR MADRAS CITY—APRIL 1941.

A BIRD'S EYE VIEW.

The cost of living index number for the working classes in Madras City for April 1941 works out to 139 which is higher by one point than the index for the previous month.

As compared with the previous month, the index for the food group rose by one point to 128 owing mainly to an increase in the price of rice.

The index number for the fuel and lighting group rose by one point to 141 due to a rise in the price of kerosene oil.

A rise in the price of clothing and personal effects had the effect of raising the index for the clothing group by one point to 135.

The group index in respect of housing and miscellaneous remained unchanged at 120 and 122 respectively.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras City Police Act, 1935, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

AND WHEREAS the Governor of Madras has, by a Proclamation under section 93 of the Government of India Act, 1935, assumed to himself all powers vested by or under the said Act in the Provincial Legislature;

NOW, THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers so assumed to himself, the Governor is pleased to enact as follows:—

1. (1) This Act may be called the Madras City Police (Amendment) Act, 1941.

(2) (a) This section, section 2 and new section

TI-A inserted in the Madras City Police Act, 1935

Madras Act
15 of 1935.

Section 5
Ch. 2

Madras Act
13 of 1935.

Short title
and extent of the Act.

(hereinafter referred to as the said Act), by section 3, shall come into force at once.

(b) The Provincial Government may, by notification in the Port St. George Gazette, direct that new sections 71-B to 71-L inserted in the said Act by section 3, shall come into force on such date as may be appointed in the notification.

Amendment
of section 71,
Hutches Act
111 of 1948.

2. Clause xii of section 71 of the said Act shall be omitted.

Insertion of new sections
71-A to 71-L
in Hutches Act 111 of 1948.

3. After section 71 of the said Act, the following sections shall be inserted, namely:—

Penalty for begging in public places.

"71-A. Whoever in any public street, road, or thoroughfare or any place of public resort, begs or applies for alms, or exposes or exhibits any sore, wound, bodily ailment or deformity with the object of exciting charity or of extorting alms, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees or with imprisonment which may extend to one month.

Definition
of "workhouse" and
"special home".

71-B. In sections 71-C to 71-L—

(a) "workhouse" shall mean a place notified by the Provincial Government in the Port St. George Gazette as suitable for the reception of persons physically capable of ordinary manual labour, who are committed to a workhouse under any of the provisions contained in the said sections; and

(b) "special home" shall mean a place notified by the Provincial Government in the Port St. George Gazette as suitable for the reception of persons not physically capable of ordinary manual labour, who are committed to a special home under any of the provisions contained in the said sections.

Definition
of sections 71-D to 71-L.

71-C. The provisions of sections 71-D to 71-G shall apply only if the Provincial Government have notified a place as a workhouse or as a special home; the provisions of section 71-H shall apply if the Provincial Government have notified a place as a workshop; and the provisions of section 71-J shall apply if the Provincial Government have notified a place as a special home.

71-D. Any person arrested by a Police-officer for an offence punishable under section 71-A who in the opinion of such Police-officer has attained the age of sixteen years, shall without delay be taken before a medical officer attached to the Police Department; and the medical officer shall after examining such person grant a certificate regarding his age and physical capacity for ordinary manual labour.

Persons arrested for offences under section 71-A to be examined by medical officer.

71-E. If in the opinion of such medical officer the person arrested has not attained the age of sixteen years, such person shall without delay be produced, together with the certificate of the medical officer, before a Juvenile Court referred to in sub-section (1) of section 71-K and the provisions of that section shall then apply to the case.

Arrested person to be produced before Juvenile Court, if found to be under 16.

71-F. (1) If in the opinion of such medical officer the person arrested has attained the age of sixteen years, he shall without delay be produced before a salaried Presidency Magistrate together with the certificate and a report by a Police-officer of the facts of the case.

Arrested person to be produced before salaried Presidency Magistrate, if found to be 16 or over.

(2) The Magistrate shall make a summary inquiry into the facts of the case and the circumstances and the character of the person produced before him.

(3) During such inquiry the Magistrate shall explain to such person the facts alleged against him in the Police report and record any statement which he may wish to make with reference thereto.

(4) If such person disputes the correctness of the Police report in any material respect, the Magistrate shall proceed as nearly as may be in accordance with the procedure laid down for the trial of summary cases in the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1888.

Order to be passed by Magistrate
if he finds guilty of an offence (A).

71-G. If the Magistrate finds that the person in respect of whom an inquiry is made under section 71-F is guilty of an offence under section 71-A, but has not attained the age of sixteen years, the Magistrate may pass any order which a Juvenile Court could have passed if such person had been produced before it under sub-section (1) of section 71-K.

Power of Magistrate
to commit adults to
house.

71-H. (1) If the Magistrate finds that the person in respect of whom such inquiry is made is guilty of an offence under section 71-A, has attained the age of sixteen years, and is physically capable of ordinary manual labour, the Magistrate may, if there is a workhouse, instead of sentencing him under section 71-A, order him committed to such workhouse for a specified period not exceeding three years:

Provided that the Magistrate may in his discretion order the release of such person if he gives an undertaking in writing that he will not again commit an offence under section 71-A for such period not exceeding two years as the Magistrate may direct.

(2) Any person who commits an offence under section 71-A in breach of an undertaking given by him under the proviso to sub-section (1), shall, if in the opinion of the Magistrate he is physically capable of ordinary manual labour, be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months:

Provided that the Magistrate may, instead of sentencing the offender as aforesaid, order him committed to a workhouse for a specified period not exceeding three years.

Power of Magistrate
to commit
adults who are not physically capable to special
house.

71-I. If the Magistrate finds that the person in respect of whom an inquiry is made under section 71-F is guilty of an offence under section 71-A and has attained the age of sixteen years but is not physically capable of ordinary manual labour, the Magistrate may, if there is a special home, instead of sentencing him under section 71-A, order his commitment to such home for a specified period not exceeding three years.

71-J. Where a Magistrate has arrived at a finding regarding the age of a person dealt with by him under section 71-G, 71-H or 71-I, such age as he shall, for the purposes thereof, be deemed to be his true age, and no order or judgment of the Magistrate shall be deemed to be revised or be liable to be interfered with on appeal or revision on the ground that the age of such person was not correctly determined by the Magistrate.

71-K. (1) If any person arrested by a Police officer for an offence punishable under section 71-A has, in the opinion of such Police officer, not attained the age of sixteen years, he shall without delay be produced before a Juvenile Court established under subsection (1) of section 39 of the Madras Children Act, 1920, and shall be dealt with under the provisions of that Act as modified by the provisions of this section:

Provided that if the Juvenile Court is satisfied on inquiry that such person has attained the age of sixteen years, it shall record a finding to that effect, and thereupon it shall be open to the Police to proceed against such person under section 71-A, or if there is a workhouse or a special home, under section 71-D; and in the latter case the medical officer referred to in section 71-D shall be required to certify only regarding the physical capacity of such person for ordinary manual labour, and the finding of the Juvenile Court regarding the age of such person shall also be binding on the salaried Presidency Magistrate before whom he may be produced.

IV-B-5

(2) If the Juvenile Court finds on inquiry that any person brought before it under sub-section (1) has not attained the age of fourteen years and is guilty of an offence under section 71-A and that he—

(a) has no home or settled place of abode or visible means of subsistence, or has no parent or guardian, or has a parent or guardian who does not exercise proper guardianship, or

(b) is destitute and both his parents or his surviving parent, or in the case of an illegitimate child, his mother, are or is undergoing transportation or imprisonment, or

(c) is under the care of a parent or guardian who by reason of criminal or drunken habits is unfit to have such care, the Court may pass such order in respect of the offender as it could have passed if he had been brought before it under sub-section (1) of section 29 of the Madras Children

Act, 1930: Madras Act
19 of 1930

• Provided that if the Juvenile Court is satisfied that it is inexpedient to send the offender to a certified school by reason of his bodily ailment or incapacity or other cause, the Court may, if there is a special home and separate accommodation is provided in such home for persons who have not attained the age of fourteen years, order his commitment to such home for a specified period not exceeding three years.

(3) If the Juvenile Court finds on inquiry that a person produced before it under sub-section (1) has attained the age of fourteen years but has not attained the age of sixteen years and that he is guilty of an offence under section 71-A, the Court may order his commitment for a specified period not exceeding three years—

(a) in case it finds that he is physically capable of ordinary manual labour, to a workhouse, if there is one, and

(b) in case it finds that he is not physically capable of ordinary manual labour, to a special house, if there is one.

71-L. (1) The Provincial Government may, by notification in the Port St. George Gazette, make rules for carrying into effect the provisions of sections 71-B to 71-K.

Power of Provincial Government to make rules for carrying into effect sections 71-B to 71-K.

(2) In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, such rules may provide for—

- (a) the management of workhouses and special houses, the detention of persons committed to such workhouses and special houses, and the maintenance, care, treatment and instruction of such persons, including all matters relating to their diet and accommodation as well as their labour and general conduct;
- (b) the discharge of persons from such workhouses and special houses;
- (c) the obtaining of suitable employment outside such workhouses and special houses for persons detained therein; and
- (d) the nature, incidents and maximum periods of the punishments to be imposed on persons detained in workhouses and special houses for breach of any rules or for failure or neglect to accept any suitable employment outside such workhouses and special houses which may be obtained for them."

(By order of His Excellency the Governor)

P. APPU NAIR,
Secretary to Government, Legal Department.

The following Act received the assent of His Excellency the Governor on the 9th May 1941 and is hereby published for general information:—

ACT No. XIV OF 1941.

An Act further to amend the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920.

WHEREAS it is expedient further to amend the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920, for the purposes hereinafter appearing;

AND WHEREAS the Governor of Madras has, by a Proclamation under section 63 of the Government of India Act, 1935, assumed to himself all powers vested by or under the said Act in the Provincial Legislature; Now, WHEREFORE, in exercise of the powers so assumed to himself, the Governor is pleased to enact as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the Madras Local Boards (Amendment) Act, 1941.

2. In section 45-A of the Madras Local Boards Act, 1920 (hereinafter referred to as the said Act)—
